4. The proposed Eastern Europe program was approved by the Committee on Exploitation of Foreign Language Publications at its 25th meeting on 2 December. Classified translation problems of member agencies were discussed and as a result possible cooperation between Army and Navy is being considered by those services.

5. The Office of Personnel concurred with our proposal that a recruiting program exclusively aimed at acquiring linguists for FDD be undertaken. FDD will recommend recruitment areas and suggest contacts for the recruiting officer.

6. An "emergency" meeting was called 22 December of Logistics Office, GSA, and FDD representatives at which it was suggested by GSA that the Division's move to 1717 H St. was imminent although no renovation of space had been started. When FDD security and power-supply requirements were explained, GSA acknowledged that further delay was necessary to meet minimal needs of the Division.
